Join us for this fascinating tour of the land that Christopher Columbus said was “the most beautiful land that humans have ever seen.”

Karen and Joel have been working in the photographic field for over 35 years and are both accomplished professional photographers. Karen is a skilled and sensitive photographic artist and educator and during our tour will share ideas and knowledge to help you create great travel photographs, whether you are using a DSLR or an iPhone! Joel is an expert in the digital imaging world and has done photographic printing for some of the most notable names in fine art photography. He will share his knowledge of both the technical and creative aspects of the photographic medium.

In addition, Karen and Joel will offer visual presentations and discussions highlighting the development of personal vision and awareness, and show how light, color, composition, gesture and 'the moment' contribute to the success of a photograph. There will also be opportunities to have photo reviews of your images, so everyone can learn and share from each other, or private photo reviews can be arranged.

Both Karen and Joel are passionate iPhoneographers and during your tour will offer optional creative iPhoneography instruction. Our goal is to make this tour enjoyable and fun for both serious and casual photographers!

From Karen: "I encourage each person to give themselves permission to make mistakes, permission to create. The more we learn to 'see' with our mind, heart and spirit, the more of an adventure life becomes."

Many thanks to you both for helping us discover Cuba; it was such a rich and exotic experience! We will enjoy the memories and the photos for many years to come. ~ Lana and Joe

Cuba was a wonderful experience that was much enriched by Strabo Tours. I was stunned by the amount of photographs to be made: people, architecture, horticulture, and, of course, the cars from the 40's and 50's that were everywhere. It was definitely a wonderful experience. ~ Marilyn

An outstanding trip that takes you back in time to a place filled with great music, architecture, cars and a revolutionary spirit. ~ Kathy

Strabo's trip to Cuba will be one you will never forget. There are photo ops galore. While Cuba may be economically deprived, it is culturally rich. ~ Janice

This is a licensed 'People-to-People' program, which includes daily activities, immersing you in the heart and soul of Cuba. Designed as a cultural and historical program, it will also provide dramatic photographic opportunities each day. From the hustle and bustle of Old Havana, to the slower paced countryside of the Pinar del Río Province, and an overnight stay on the southern coast beach of the Bay of Pigs. Visualize the appeal of this country that has been closed off to Americans for decades.

You will be introduced to the rich culture and strong-willed people of Havana, as well as the spectacular UNESCO (United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization) World Heritage site of the Valley of the Sugar Mills, and the colonial town of Trinidad on Cuba's southern coast. The people of Cuba are friendly and open. You will find so many wonderful faces to photograph in the cities and the countryside. There are those in Havana that earn a living this way and those that are just as pleased to be photographed looking for nothing in return.

Wander and explore through Havana's colonial architecture, while watching the antique vehicles pass you by. There will be daily educational programs given by your local guide, where you will learn about the arts, traditional music, dance, history and culture. You will visit with local families of diverse neighborhoods, and the sugar and tobacco farmers of the countryside.

Itinerary

January 17 & 18 Home – Santa Clara - Trinidad
Depart today on your flight to Cuba. A flight schedule will be announced as the tour approaches, likely to have everyone connect in Florida to be on the same flight landing in Santa Clara. Once the group arrives in the Santa Clara Airport, you will collect your bags, go through customs and meet your local guide. After exchanging some funds you will have some brief photo opportunities in Santa Clara. Santa Clara is the Capital City of the Villa Clara Province, located in the center of Cuba. Che Guevara liberated the city in 1958 from the Batiste regime. Visit the Parque del Carmen, including Saint Carmen's Church, a colonial building with a beautiful park across the street.

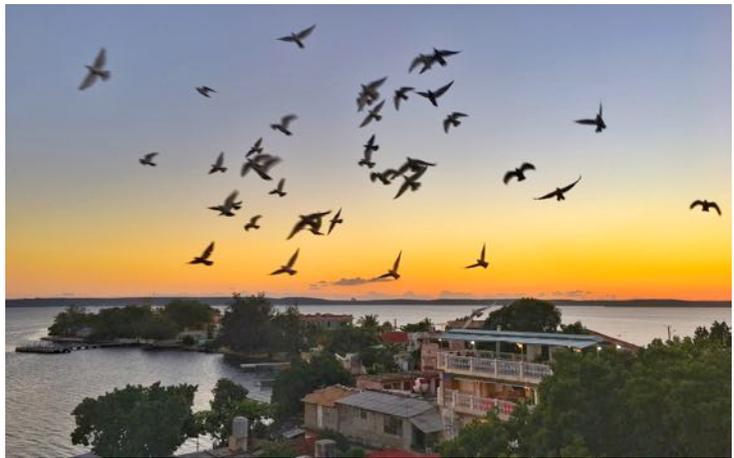

Continue on to Trinidad, founded in the early 16th century on the southern coast of the country. It was designated an UNESCO site in 1988, and it's the perfect example of a traditional colonial town, with red tiled roofs and an array of pastel colored houses lining cobbled stone streets. Walk with your leader or wander on your own capturing the simplicity of this quaint town and its villagers. One evening you will drive to Playa Ancon, which provides an opportunity to capture the beautiful white sandy beaches of Cuba lined with palm trees at sunset. Both evenings there will be opportunities to listen to some wonderful traditional music and a chance to dance away the night.

After breakfast, your guide will join you for a walking tour of the city streets, where you may visit and photograph at an artist studio, or local school. Photograph artisans as they work or school children as they interact with one another and their teachers. Travel to the Valley of the Sugar Mills, photographing the beautiful landscape and a ruined 19th Century sugar estate. The landscape speaks of the transitions this country has seen. Explore with your local guide as he educates you on the sugar plantations of yesterday. Overnight Casa Particular, Trinidad. (B, L, D; B)

January 19 Cienfuegos – Bay of Pigs

After sunrise photography from the hotel and breakfast, we drive west towards the Zapata Peninsula. Before reaching the Bay of Pigs we come across the City of Cienfuegos, a very modern city by Cuba's standards, offering architectural photography of the historic square, as well as a beautiful harbor. Enjoy lunch in the "Pearl of the South" before continuing on to your overnight stay on the beach at the Bay of Pigs. Be sure to bring your bathing suit for a swim in this most famous bay. There will be sunset and sunrise photography on the bay, weather cooperating of course. Overnight Playa Larga. (B, L, D)

January 20 & 21 Viñales – Province Pinar del Río

After a sunrise photography walk on the beach, enjoy breakfast and depart for the Pinar del Río Province, home of many sugar and tobacco fields. It has an economy based on agriculture, mainly tobacco farming, and its soil is considered to be some of the richest in the world. Photograph rural family life amidst the tobacco fields and traditional buildings of this region. In the Viñales Valley, another UNESCO World Heritage site, we'll see mountainous "mogotes", made of hard limestone left over after millennia of erosion, as well as rural farmland vistas. An overlook offers commanding views of the landscape, which we will capture at sunset one evening. Depending on our overnight location, we may have an early morning photography walk the next day in town before breakfast. We will then head down into the valley and walk the paths through fields of tobacco and sugar cane, meeting the farmers and photographing their homes, farms and families. Lunch will be at an organic farm overlooking the valley. Overnight Casa Particular: participants will stay in various local homes to experience the family hospitality and central location in town. All rooms have private baths and would be considered their version of a B&B. (B, D; B, L)

January 22-25 Old Havana

Enjoy a leisurely morning in Viñales with additional photography before departing for Havana. Your guide will orient you to the highlights of Old Havana on a walking tour. As you stroll the streets, you will be overwhelmed with sights to photograph, from the antique American cars, children playing in the streets or in abandoned lots, from the beautifully restored hotels to the paint peeling off dilapidated buildings. Havana's architecture is the most beautiful in the various plazas, where locals and tourists congregate to share stories. Plaza de Armas, Plaza de la Cathedral, Plaza Vieja, and Plaza de San Francisco, are a few that are within walking distance of our hotel. You will be able to return late at night while music fills the air, or early in the morning to photograph as the streets come to life again.

In 1982, Old Havana was designated an UNESCO World Heritage site. It is brimming with a variety of historical landmarks and interesting things to do. Walking the streets in this area is a favorite pastime and will surely result in an unforgettable experience with lots of chances to take advantage of a myriad of photo ops. After early morning photography on foot with your leaders, return to the hotel for breakfast, then meet your guide to visit La Torre (the tower) with a bird's eye view of the harbor and city. Morro Cabaña (fortress) just across the harbor provides another perspective of the waves crashing on the lighthouse and fortress, along with the skyline of Havana. If time permits, there will be a tour of Ernest Hemingway's former home, Finca La Vigia, which is located close by, where we can view the remembrances of his 20 years in Cuba.

There will be free time in the late afternoons to walk the promenade down to the harbor, with incredible panoramic views. You can also photograph from the roof top terrace of our hotel for sunrise and sunset views or the city. Overnight Hotel Inglaterra (B; B, L; B, D)

January 26 Havana – Home

There will be a transfer to Havana airport for your trip home (exact time to be announced). Confirm with Strabo Tours, prior to booking domestic flights. Be sure to leave three hours between flights if you are making a connection after the Havana flight. This will all be worked out when we are closer to our date. (B)

Participants should know that Cuba is a special destination. Please understand that all elements of the itinerary are subject to change and that activities listed are examples of opportunities that may present themselves. Since the program is authorized by the U.S. Treasury Department, we have to abide by any changes to regulations that may take place. Please remain flexible as these circumstances are beyond our control. Be assured that all efforts will be made to provide a comparable alternative should an item on our itinerary need to be changed.
